

ORDINANCE #3, 1975

AN ORDINANCE ESTABLISHING LAUNCH AND PARK FEES AND DECLARING AN EMERGENCY

BE IT ENACTED BY THE PORT OF NEWPORT:

ARTICLE I

~~Findings and determinations. The Port of Newport by Ordinance No. 2, 1975 adopted revised moorage fee schedules reflecting the need for increased revenue to meet increasing costs.~~

Increased fees for launching and parking, to meet rising operation costs were anticipated in the budget income figures, however were inadvertantly left off of the fee schedule set forth in Ordinance No. 2, 1975.

It is necessary to increase launch and park fees to meet the rising costs of operation.

ARTICLE II

Declaration of Emergency. Increased launch and park fees are necessary to meet rising costs of operation and to balance the operating budget for the budget year beginning July 1, 1975. It is necessary for the orderly administration of the fiscal affairs of the Port of Newport for this ordinance to go into effect July 1, 1975, and therefore an emergency is declared.

ARTICLE III

Schedule of fees. The following schedule of fees for launching and parking shall be and the same is hereby adopted effective as of July 1, 1975.

Daily Fee

Launch - in	$1.25
- out	$1.25
Vehicle parking only	$1.25

Passed by the Board of Commissioners of the Port of Newport at a meeting held on the 9th day of June, 1975.
